Biography

Vincenzo Fiore Marrese was born in Florence, Italy. He began his art studies at the National Art Institute and received his BFA and MFA from the Academy of Fine Arts of Florence. He received the certification to teach Art and Art History from the Italian Ministry of Education, University and Research. He exhibited in Europa, Asia and America. Several cultural venues featured his work and research, including KKc - Kaņepes Kultūras centrs (Riga), Free Riga Creative Hive D27 (Riga), CCK - Cultural Center Korpus (Minsk), Art residence Carbon (Kyiv), Semio Theatre (Athens), Charukola Institute – FFA Faculty of Fine Arts (Dhaka), Cross Attic (Prague), Projektwohnung „krudebude“ (Leipzig), Teatro Espace (Turin), Gallery SULUV (Novi Sad), Poropati (Berlin), Institute of Automation (Kyiv), Gallery Center424 (Belgrade), AKT, Art-Zavod Platforma (Kyiv), Centro Boliviano Americano (Santa Cruz), Liebig12 (Berlin) and Albertinum Museum (Dresden) among other venues. The artist participated in Dhaka Live Art Biennale and Performing Arts Festival Berlin. In November, he will present a contribution to a book at Art Cologne in Germany. He has a base in Berlin.

His mother was born in Maremma, a region in Tuscany surrounded by countryside, and his father is a migrant from the South of Italy. At the beginning of his art career, he joined a group of artists that organized performances in an illegal occupation in a peripheral area of Florence. After the dissolution of this group, he founded a theatre company. Then he developed independent research by travelling abroad, particularly in Eastern Europe. He is part of the artist duo Kornieieva-Marrese with the Ukrainian artist Tetiana Kornieieva. In 2021, he co-founded the festival "preserve memories-provide energy" in Berlin.
